Contents

Reasons for a book — 13

I. The settings

1. The historical setting — 23
Central Europe in the last centuries BC — 23
The places — 24
The actors and the events — 24
The readings — 27
A bottom line — 33
Romans drawing close — 34

2. The geographical and archaeological background — 39
Bohemia, 'Narrower Central Europe', WnCE, EnCE, the Mediterranean — 39
Bohemia and Central Europe in the La Tène period — 41

3. Chronological setting — 48
Historical chronology — 48
Mediterranean imports — 49
Chronologies of the Second Iron Age in temperate Europe — 51
Chronologies of the Middle and Late Iron Age in Bohemia — 55
Závist, Gate D and the chronology of the oppida period — 56
The pre-oppida period — 63
Numismatic chronology — 63
The chronological framework – some conclusions — 64

II. The Things and the Thoughts

1. Introduction — 69
The corpus of the imports — 70
Provenance of the artefacts — 71
Stradonice old collections — 71
Excavations — 75

Metal detector finds — 76
Imports or local products? — 76
2. The Things – Mediterranean imports in Late Iron Age Central Europe — 77
Bronze vessels — 77
Bronze vessels in Central Europe of the pre-oppida period — 78
Bronze vessels of the 2nd–1st centuries BC — 89
Buckets — 89
Pans — 98
Jugs — 102
Feet — 107
Simpula — 111
Strainers — 114
Mugs — 125
Amphorae — 127
Basins — 128
Basin foot? — 128
Vessel body fragments and undetermined pieces — 129
Aryballos handle? — 130
Shafted strainer — 130
Oenochoai — 131
A shell-shaped attachment — 133
Basin attachment — 133
Figural boss — 134
Cordiform balsamaria — 134
A silver duck-head pendant from Závist — 138
Glass vessels — 140
Mirrors — 144
Jewellery — 149
Beads — 149
Finger rings — 153
Amber ring — 166
Gold — 168
A gold filigree disc — 168
Gold amphora-shaped pendant — 169
Phallic pendants — 171
Medical and toilet instruments — 173
Writing instruments and (more or less) related topics — 176
Writing — 176
Writing instruments — 177
Styli — 177
Wax tablets (or not) — 181
Seal boxes — 183

Pottery — 184
Black gloss ('Campanian') pottery — 185
'Pre-sigillata' and early terra sigillata — 192
Thin-walled pottery — 193
Unguentarium — 195
Common wares – jugs and jars, internal red-slip plates, mortaria — 196
Amphorae — 200
Pottery imitations — 209
The pre-oppida period — 209
The oppida period — 212
Beasts and plants: ecofacts and artefacts — 215
Other — 218
The question of brass and a note on bronze — 218
Oil lamps — 219
Figural attachment — 221
Strigil suspension rings — 222
Box fittings — 224
Omega-shaped handles and decorative nail heads — 224
Handles in the form of two opposing dolphins — 226
Anthropomorphic statuary — 226
Arms and armour — 227
From north to south — 230
Bohemica among the Italian Boii? — 230
Coins — 231
Amber, slaves, and other ghosts — 233

3. More Things – Mediterranean coins in Late Iron Age Central Europe — 236
Roman coins — 237
Greek coins in Iron Age Central Europe — 239
The Němčice mercenaries — 239
Central Europe and north-eastern Italy – comparison and some reflections — 241
The selection criteria and the comparison method — 241
The regional spectra — 243
Three chronological horizons — 245
Regional spectra – the cities and authorities — 245
The 'oppida period' — 249
An African digression — 250
Several certainties and intermediate reflections — 251
The function of Greek coins beyond the Alps: several hypotheses — 252
To sum up — 256

4. The Thoughts — 258
Technologies — 258
Bronze technology — 258
Rotary querns — 259
Pottery production — 259
Glass working — 260
Coinage — 262
Everyday practices — 266
Dice and gaming pieces — 266
A 'Kultbaumchen' — 267
Architecture - the case of Bratislava — 268
The origin of oppida — 275

III. Conclusion

What, when, where... — 283
The pre-oppida period — 286
The oppida period — 290
The categories — 290
The sites — 293
Patterns — 295
East and West — 301
Who, how, why... — 304
The pre-oppida period - mercenaries and craftsmen (?) — 304
The oppida period - trade and (?) mediterraneanisation — 307
What? — 307
How? — 308
Who? — 309
Why? — 314
What's next? — 317

Appendix I - Written sources — 319
Appendix II - Catalogue — 331
Appendix III - Catalogue of Greek coins — 375
Credits for drawings of the catalogued artefacts — 386
Bibliography — 387